Welcome Veterans

The veterans of 61-65 take Appomattox again tomorrow. The town and county greets them with a welcome of sincere love and affection. The town is decorated and the people here are vieing with each other to make our visitors enjoy a return visit to Appomattox after an absence of 61 years. Our homes are thrown open to these heros and every honor and attention will be shown them.

Many times welcome and our wish is that you will all live to visit us again.

Few Marriages

Are the Virginia men becoming too cautious or are the girls too exacting? Something is the matter. There are less and less marriages in this State. North Carolina helped our total by enacting a law requiring physical fitness for marriage; but even with that help, the total for 1926 was nearly two thousand under the 1923 record.

Emphasis is placed upon the record being made from the reports of clerks because even the diminishing total was not fully reported by the ministers.

Thanks to N. C.

Greensville and Halifax are two border counties which show increases in marriages the passage of a North Carolina law requisite for marriage. Contrary to the experience of the State as a whole, which shows a constant decline since 1921, the marriage record of Greensville was 415 for 1925 as against 218 for 1921, while Halifax showed for the same period a gain of 117-400 in 1921 and 517 in 1925.

There were no marriages of negros in Bland, Buckanan or Smith. Carroll and Highland reported one each Page, Craig, and Floyd each reported two, and the city of Buena Vista had the same number To the contrary marriages of blacks exceeded in several counties the marriages of whites Charles City county had 34 negro weddings to 4 of white people; New Kent had 15 to 5, and Powhatan had 27 to 11.

Delegate Horsely is responsible for raising the marriage fee to $2 Who knows better than he the trouble.

Rascality in Politics

Senator Reed, democrat, had a resolution passed by U. S. Senate to investigate election frauds.

His resolution had been pending some time, and he snapped up the opportunity to get action on it during the squabble which started when Senator Harrison, Democrat, Miss., cited published reports placing expenditures in the Pennsylvania Primary campaign at $2,000,000 to $5,000,000. Republican Old Guard ledaers opposed its consideration, but when voted down on this point, many of them cast their ballots for its adoption.

Candidate Pinchot, Pepper and Vare are all millionaires. Vare got the Republican nomination.

The session was ended by a blistering denunciation of Newberryism by Senator Reed, of Missouri. He said:

"The burglar with loot in his possession, the highwayman with his bludgeon and pistol, the arson committer with his torch, if you summon them all, and put alongside of them the man who had expended great sums of money to poison the ballots of the American people, I would say the greatest criminal of all is the man who thus strikes at the foundation of the government."

"He is a blacker villian because his criminality strikes at the heart of the principles upon which free government is founded.

"Behold the people summoned to the ballot box to express their untrammeled will and thence mes the bribe giver and the corruptionist, buying the souls of free men, buying a privilege that was purchased by the lives of countless millions.'

It evidently pays to be a political boss especially where there are millions to be used in debauching the voter.

Tucker Declared Democratic Nominee

The time within which candidates can file their declarations of candidacy for Congress to be voted for in the democratic primary Aug. 3rd, 1926 having expired and Hon. St. George Tucker, being the only candidate who has qualified for said office, I hereby declare him to be the democratic nominee for Congress in the Tenth Congressional District of Virginia, and there will be no primary held for the purpose of nominating a candidate for said office.

S. L. Ferguson, Chairman, Democratic Committee for the Tenth Congressional District of Virginia.

"THE MAN EVERYBODY KNOWS"

Another journalistic triumph has been scored in presenting to the public through the pages of the New York Americon the great story "The Man Nobody Knows" by Bruce Barton.

This is a story of Jesus—but it is so different from anything of its kind that has hitherto been written, that a note of explanation is necessary.

Instead of following the traditional paths which chroniclers of Christ have tread for the past two thousand years, Mr. Barton boldly—yet reverently— sweeps aside the conventional views we have held of our Savior, and reveals him as a human being—a vigorous, forceful, keen, clever, kindly and understanding man who, if he were among us today, would talk our language, observe our customs, and enjoy our pleasures and facilities.

Whether you agree or not, you will certainly want to read this eloquent story by a modern business man who was not satisfied with the traditional conception of Jesus of Nazareth.

The Man Nobody Knows begins in the New York American Sunday, June 13th and continues daily thereafter.

In order that everybody desirous of reading this remarkable story will be enabled to do so, a special subscription offer of $1.00 for 60 days is now in effect. Pin yours to a sheet of paper and send it in.

Ancient Chinese Drug

Better Than Adrenalin

Madison, Wis.—New uses have been found for an ancient Chinese drug, ephedrine, which indicate it will be a "powerful aid in the hands of modern physicians" in raising the blood pressure, treatment of asthma and colds, and as an anesthetic, the University of Wisconsin announced.

Research conducted by Dr. Ko-Kuei Chen, pharmacologist at the university, with the drug indicates, he said, that it is superior to adrenalin in the ability to raise the blood pressure over long periods. Experiments are being conducted to determine whether it also is useful in the treatment of hay fever.

Doctor Chen has found a new method for isolating ephedrine, which has been used for medical purposes in China for more than 5,000 years. The drug, which has been submitted to tests here and at the Mayo clinic and the University of Pennsylvania, he said, has been declared an "excellent" treatment for asthma and colds in the head, and a valuable anesthetic.

Canaan Dedicated

Rev. Phillip Morgan and his choir of sixteen, and one deacon, of Wolf Creek Baptist Church, Fayette County, W. Va., were here on the 5th Sunday in May. Rev. Morgan preached the Dedication sermon from the text:—"this is none other but the house of God; and this is the gate of heaven," Gen. 28-17. His sermon was grand and the music rendered by the choir was the best ever produced in a colored church in Appomattox County— Both white and colored enjoyed these services and the singing to the fullest extent—the text for the night sermon was Isiah 62-1. —"For Zions sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth." The congregation of Canaan Church desire to express their appreciation for services rendered by their excellent coterie of friends of this congregation.

In the Kitchen with 6 Famous Cooks
SIX TRADITIONAL NEW ENGLAND DISHES
(Ed. Note: This is one of a special series of articles contributed by 6 famous cooks. Their recipes are "different." Cut out and paste them in your cook book.)
Probably no section of the country is as famous for its traditional dishes as New England. The eating of beans and brown bread has become almost a rite in many of those old homes.

MISS LUCY G. ALLEN
Miss Lucy G. Allen, head of the well-known Boston School of Cookery, has spent all her life in New England. She has taught hundreds of women cooking in her classes, and has written many cook books, among them "Choice Dishes for Clever Cooks," and "Table Service."
She has contributed to this unusual cooking series recipes for six typically New England dishes.
Boston Bake Beans
It's the preparation and the slow cooking which makes Boston Baked Beans superior to all others.
Pick over one quart of pea, or kidney beans, cover with cold water and soak over night. In the morning, drain, cover with fresh water and bring to a boil. Drain again. Wash and score a three-inch cube of fat salt pork. Put the beans in a big, earthenware beanpot. Bury the pork in the beans, leaving the rind exposed. Mix one tablespoon of salt, one tablespoon of Coleman's dry mustard, one spoonful of sugar, and one-half teaspoon of dry mustard; add these seasonings to one cup of boiling water and pour over the beans. Then add enough boiling water to cover the beans. Cover the beanpot, put in hot oven and bake six or eight hours, uncovering the last hour of cooking.
Steamed Brown Bread
For a most delectable meal, serve steaming hot brown bread with the beans. It's a prime combination. Add pickles and catsup with the beans. Here's the original New England Brown Bread:
Mix two cups cornmeal, one cup of rye meal, two teaspoons of soda, two teaspoons of salt, one-half cup of molasses, two cups of sour milk and two cups of sweet milk. Let stand for one hour, stirring occasionally. The batter is better if the meal swells before the mixture is put into the steamer. Put in a buttered mold, filling it only two-thirds full, cover and steam several hours.
And Chowder
A hearty dish, most especially by men, is fish chowder. It's economical too. Buy a four pound haddock, skinned with the head left on. Remove the head and cut the fish into two inch pieces and set aside. Put the backbone broken in pieces and the head in a kettle and add two cups of cold water, bring slowly to a boil and then cook twenty minutes. Put into the cooking liquid kettle an inch and a half cube of fat salt pork cut into small bits, and fry out.
Add one sliced onion and fry for five minutes. Add three or four medium potatoes pared and cut in slices. Strain the stock from the fish bones over the potatoes and cook until they are soft.
Add the fish and simmer ten minutes. Then add one quart of milk, one spoon of salt, one-sixth teaspoon of pepper, one tablespoon of butter and either a few or four pieces of pilot bread or six or seven cooking crackers. The longer chowder can simmer or stand before serving, the better it will be.

Codfish Balls
Wash one-half pound of salt codfish and cut into small pieces, using kitchen scissors to make one cupful. Wash and pare potatoes and cut into pieces the size of an English walnut. Cook the fish and one-half pints. Cook the potatoes separately, adding to boiling water until potatoes are soft.
Drain thoroughly through a strainer, return to kettle and shake over fire for a few minutes to evaporate all moisture. Then add one cup and a half tablespoonful of butter, one egg well beaten and one-fourth teaspoon of pepper. Beat well with a fork to make fluffy and salt if necessary. Drop by spoonfuls into deep fat and fry.
Pumpkin Pie
Pumpkin pie when made right is a real delicacy. And this recipe for it is especially good. For a more elaborate dish it may be served with whipped cream.
For the pastry, measure two cups of flour and sift with one and one half teaspoon of salt. Cut in, using two knives, three-fourths cup of lard. Add three-fourths cup of cold ice water mixing with a knife. Chill before using.
For the filling, mix one and one-half cups of cooked and sifted pumpkin, with two-thirds cup of white sugar, one teaspoon of grated nutmeg, one-half teaspoon of salt, two cups of rich milk and two cups of milk or if milk is not rich, use part cream.
Nice Brown Doughnuts
Try frying sour milk doughnuts according to this good New England recipe of Miss Allen's. The kitchen will be filled with delicious odor and members of the family when they smell these tempting doughnuts.
Beat until light one whole egg and one egg yolk, add gradually three-fourths cup of sugar, beating all the time, one tablespoon of melted butter, one teaspoon of grated nutmeg and two cups of flour.
Mix one half teaspoon of soda with one half cup of sour milk having the milk rather rich. Add milk and flour alternately to the egg mixture, a little salt and pat out, handling as little as possible, then cut and try in deep fat.

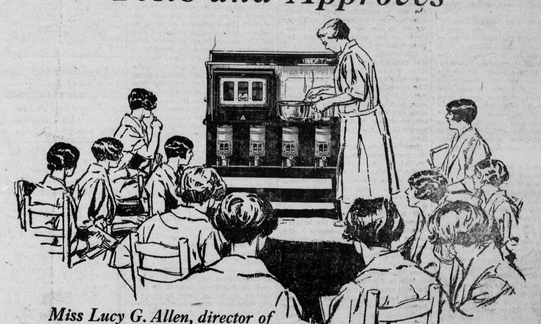
BOSTON SCHOOL of COOKERY
Tests and Approves


Miss Lucy G. Allen, director of the school, tells her experience with the Perfection Oil Stove.
MISS LUCY ALLEN, director of the conservative Boston School of Cookery, is one of six famous cooks who recently put the Perfection Stove to a rigorous, practical cooking test. Like the other five famous cooks, Miss Allen cooked by every cooking process, and gave us her opinion of the Perfection.
Uniformly Good Results
"I cooked many meals on the Perfection Stove," says Miss Allen. "The results, whether using the top of the stove, the oven, the broiler, or the toaster were uniformly good. There were several features sufficiently pronounced to recommend the stove to the most particular people.
Easy to Work on
"The Perfection is an easy stove to work on. There is no reaching across several hot plates, as there is with a gas or coal range.
"The flame never varied from the point at which it was set, whether it was low for stewing down pumpkin or high for baking beans several hours.
Clean Kettles
"There was no black deposit on the cooking utensils, even when the high, yellow tipped flame was used for broiling steak.
"The long chimneys burn every drop of oil completely before the heat reaches the utensils.
"We were so well pleased with the 1926 Perfection Stove, both as to results and operation, that after completing the test we kept it to use for auxiliary work in our classes," she concluded.
Tested and approved by the Boston School of Cookery! That means that the Perfection was used under all possible cooking conditions—for slow cooking, for fast cooking; for baking, for frying, and for broiling. In every case it was found efficient.
Six Cooks Agree
The other five famous cooks who tested the Perfection were enthusiastic, too, about the results obtained. And, every day 4,500,000 women get real cooking satisfaction from their Perfections.
See these 1926 Perfections at any dealer's. All sizes from a one-burner stove at $6.75 to a five-burner range at $120.00. When you cook on a 1926 Perfection, you, too, will be well pleased with it.
